INTRODUCTION TO ST FARNAN'S POST PRIMARY SCHOOL

St Farnan's Post Primary School was established in 1941

St.Farnan's Post Primary School is a co-educational post primary secondary school in Prosperous, Co. Kildare. The school opened in 1941 with three classrooms, student numbers have grown over the years and we now have 517 students attending the school. The catchment area for our school is Prosperous, Timahoe, Donadea, Allen, Allenwood, Coill Dubh, Clane, Robertstown, Staplestown and Kilmeague.

The school has a Board of Management, which is a subcommittee of Co. Kildare and Wicklow Education Training Board (ETB). The Board of Management consists of representatives of the ETB. Community representatives, parent representatives, and teacher's representatives. The School Principal is Secretary to the Board and the Deputy Principal is in attendance at the meetings.

The school runs several courses including Junior Certificate, Junior Certificate Schools Programme, Leaving Certificate, Leaving Certificate Applied, Leaving Cert Vocational Programme and Transition Year. There is also a double ASD Unit (Room 25) and a Moderate Learning Unit (Room 26) attached to the school. St Farnan's offers its students many extracurricular activities and both boys and girls are actively encouraged to take part in these activities. There are also courses offered to the parents of children attending the school including computing and arts and crafts under the umbrella of the Home School Community Liaison Programme. The school maintains strong links with the community through the Home School and Community Liaison Department.

By arrangement with the Board of Management, local Organisations may use the School Facilities for Community and Sporting activities.

St.Farnan's: A Brief History

St. Farnan's is maintained by Co. Kildare and Wicklow Education Training Board (ETB), has served the community since September 1941. The school is managed by the Board of Management and the internal senior leadership team. The catchment area includes Prosperous itself as well as the surrounding districts such as Allenwood, Coill Dubh, Allen, Kilmeague, Staplestown, Robertstown, Donadea, and Timahoe and to a lesser extent Clane.

The rapid educational developments of the sixties saw a growth in pupil numbers as well as the right of vocational school pupils to sit the Intermediate as well as the Group Certificate.

From 1969 to 1975 pupils in St. Farnan's were restricted to following these Junior Cycle programmes only. Those wishing to follow Senior Cycle courses were expected to transfer to Naas to do so. In practice only a small number of pupils did transfer. As a result of this most pupils who had completed Junior Cycle left the education system. The school leaving age was increased to 15 in 1972. In other words, the great majority of St. Farnan's pupils left school at or shortly after reaching the statutory age for compulsory education. After much agitation and protest the school was granted Senior Cycle status in 1975 and St. Farnan's pupils first sat the Leaving Cert. Exam in their own school in June 1976.

In more recent times the school has attempted to remain abreast of educational developments by providing Transition Year, Leaving Cert. Vocational Programme (LCVP), and Leaving Cert Applied Programme (LCA), Junior Cert Schools Programme (JCSP) as well as the standard Junior and Leaving Cert Programmes.

The original school building opened in 1941. The flat roofed extension was opened in 1971. The next phase was completed in 1989. The most recent phase was completed in August 2007 and officially opened by Minister Mary Hanafin in October 2007.

‘Student’ means the person in respect of whom the application is being made. All uses of the word throughout this Policy therefore imply ‘prospective’ as part of the interpretation. That is, the use of the word ‘Student’ does not mean that the application for him/her has been accepted such that s/he is regarded as a Student of St Farnan’s Post primary School by virtue of application alone.

‘Gender’, in line with the definition of “the gender ground” in the Equal Status Act 2000, is such that “one is male and the other is female”. [This does not prejudice any Student who is Intersex or identifies as Androgynous/Androgyne, Bigender, Demigender, Gender Fluid, Genderqueer, Multigender, Neutrois, Non-binary, Transgender, Transsexual or otherwise.]

‘Catchment Area for all classes including the Special Classes refers to the designated residential area for application to St Farnan’s Post Primary School in respect of the person on whose behalf the application is being made. The catchment area for the All Classes including Special Classes within is defined as above, i.e. Prosperous, Timahoe, Donadea, Allen, Allenwood, Coill Dubh, Staplestown, Robertstown and Kilmeague.

‘Parent’ has the same meaning as in the Education Act 1998 and includes a foster parent and a guardian appointed under the Guardianship of Children Acts, 1964 to 1997.

‘Feeder Primary Schools’ refers to the primary schools of preference for application to St Farnan’s Post Primary School. The feeder primary schools (for St Farnan’s Post Primary School are;

‘Special Class’ means a class that has, with the approval of the Minister of Education and Skills, been established by a school to provide an education exclusively for Students with a category or categories of special educational needs specified by the Minister of Education. St Farnan’s Post Primary School has a Special Class, established to cater for special educational needs of students with Autism/Autistic Spectrum Disorders and Moderate General Learning Disability.

‘First-Year’ means the intake group of Students for the most junior class or year in a school.

2 ADMISSION STATEMENT

Accordingly, St Farnan's Post Primary School shall not discriminate in its admission of a Student based on the following grounds:

- 2.1. Gender of the Student or Applicant. However, where a school admits students of one gender only, it is not discriminatory to refuse to admit Students not of that gender;
- 2.2. Civil status of the Student or Applicant;
- 2.3. Family status of the Student or Applicant;
- 2.4. Sexual orientation of the Student or Applicant;
- 2.5. Religion of the Student or Applicant;

St.Farnan's Post Primary School shall not charge fees or payments or seek contributions as a condition of admission or continued enrolment of a Student.

3 LEGAL FRAMEWORK

KWETB was established under the Education and Training Board Act 2013 which sets out the functions of all ETBs, including to establish and maintain recognised schools, centres for education and education and training facilities in each ETB's functional area.

The board of management of St. Farnan's Post Primary School is a committee established under section 44 of the Education and Training Board Act 2013 and also constitutes a board of management within the meaning of the Education Act 1998.

The Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Education (Welfare) Act 2000 place a duty on all recognised schools to prepare and publish an Admission Policy.

The Education Act, 1998 provides for an appeal process in the event of a refusal to enrol. The appeal process is set out in section 5.3 in respect of applications made to the First-Year Group and in section 6.3 in respect of applications made to all years other than the First-Year Group.

Section 62(7) (n) of the Education Act 1998 requires each school to set out in its Admission Policy the arrangements it has in place where a parent, or student over 18 years of age, requests that the student opt-out of religious instruction.

CHARACTERISTIC SPIRIT STATEMENT FOR COMMUNITY NATIONAL SCHOOLS AND NON-DESIGNATED ETB SCHOOLS

ETB schools are state, co-educational, multidenominational schools underpinned by the core values of:

- Excellence in Education;
- Care;
- Equality;
- Community and
- Respect.

As the state provider of education, the ETB sector defines a ‘multidenominational’ school in the following way:

In ETB schools, all students are given equal opportunities for enrolment in line with the Education (Admissions to School) Act 2018. Once enrolled, our schools strive to provide all students with equal opportunities to engage with the curriculum and school life. In all aspects of school life all members of our school communities are treated equitably regardless of their race, gender, religion/belief, age, family status, civil status, membership of the Traveller community, sexual orientation, ability or socio-economic status.

Our schools provide a safe physical and social environment that reinforces a sense of belonging to the school community and wider society. They strive to enable every student to realise their full potential regardless of any aspect of their identity or background. Our schools promote a fully inclusive education that recognises the plurality of identities, beliefs and values held by students, parents and staff. We prepare open-minded, culturally sensitive and responsible citizens with a strong sense of shared values.

In ETB schools, students of all religions and beliefs are treated equally. The school environment and activities do not privilege any particular group over another whilst at the same time acknowledging and facilitating students of all religions and beliefs.

Where St Farnan's Post Primary School is in a position to offer further school places that become available for and during that academic year, places will be offered in accordance with the order of priority in which Students have been placed on the waiting list.

For the avoidance of doubt, if a Student does not receive a place in the school for a given academic year, but s/he wishes to be considered for admission to the same year group in the following academic year, a new application must be made on behalf of that Student during the dates specified by the school as being the period when it will accept applications to all year groups other than First-Year. 5.1.4 Late applications

An application received by St Farnan's Post Primary School after the closing date published by the school, and set out in the Admission Notice, is considered a late application for the purposes of this Admission Policy.

Where St Farnan's Post Primary School is oversubscribed and receives a late application for admission, that application will receive a place on the waiting list beneath Applicants whose applications were received by the school before the closing date for applications. Such late applications will be placed on the waiting list in accordance with the date and time they were received by the school and subsequently the school's selection criteria will be applied in accordance with this Admission Policy. Where St Farnan's Post Primary School is not oversubscribed and it receives a late application, the Student seeking admission will receive an offer of a place within the school, subject to sections 4.7 and 4.8 and the same process as applies to Applicants whose applications were received before the closing date will be applied i.e. an Acceptance Form will be issued to the Applicant for completion and return to the school within 2 weeks of issue.

Failure to fully complete and return the Acceptance Form to the school by the date set out in the School's Admission Notice, or within 2 weeks of issuing by the school if it is a late application or if it is a second/third-round offer, may result in withdrawal of an offer, in line with the grounds for refusal as set out below.

5.1.7 Refusal

- 5.1.7.1. The reasons that the Student was not offered a place in St Farnan's Post Primary School;

Where the school is oversubscribed, any selection criteria that are not included in this Admission Policy shall not be considered in determining whether or not a Student is admitted to the school.

Where two or more applications have met the same number of selection criteria and are tied for a place, St Farnan's Post Primary School will apply a random lottery to assign any available places in the school, or on the waiting list, to those applications.]

7.1.4 Late applications:

An application received by St Farnan's Post Primary School after the closing date published by St Farnan's Post Primary School, and set out in the Admission Notice, is considered a late application for the purposes of this Admission Policy.
